

Description

Deployment activities include validating all configurations, automations, flows, security settings, and data within the Salesforce environment. Final checks are performed to ensure that the application functions correctly without errors and meets the defined business requirements.

The final presentation demonstrates the complete working of the project, showcasing key features such as record creation, automation, approval processes, reports, and dashboards. This phase highlights the practical implementation of Salesforce concepts and the overall value delivered by the solution.